THE Numb. 424.

MARYLAND GAZETTE,

Containing the freſheſt Advices foreign and domeſtic.

THURSDAY, June 21, 1753.

BERLIN, March 26.

THE Imperial Miniſter has lately had ſeveral Conferences with the Cabinet Miniſters. It is taken for granted that they turned on the Means for an amicable Adjuſtment of the Diſpute concerning the Sileſian Loan. That Affair, as it is now thought, will take a better Turn than was at firſt apprehended, and that the Reply to the Britiſh Anſwer will be diſcontinued, or at leaſt not made public, as it may only widen the Breach, and all the Reaſons for the Detention have been clearly ſet forth in the Expoſition. The Return of ſome Couriers will give a farther Light into the Means for terminating this Diſpute, which we ardently wiſh, that no Inconveniency may befal our Infant Commerce.

Venice, March 17. It is confirmed that a large Body of Turkiſh Troops is rendezvouſing near Perſia.

Paris, March 23. The King has ordered his Miniſters at foreign Courts to contradict the Conjectures of the public Talk on ſome ſuppoſed military Diſpoſitions in his Dominions.

Stockholm, March 10. According to the Account of Electrical Experiments, publiſhed by our Royal Academy of Sciences they ſurpaſs all thoſe of other Countries; the Deaf are reſtored to their Hearing, the Dumb to their Speech, the Lame and the Paralytic bring their Crutches and their Beds into the Market Places, to make Bonfires, in Honour of this wonder working Machine.

Dantzick, March 12. The Flame of eccleſiaſtical Civil Wars, begin to blaze in the Heart of Poland. The Palatine of Culm, having been nonſuited before the Nuncio, in a Proceſs, which a Prelate of the Kingdom accounted to appertain to an eccleſiaſtical Judge, in Contempt of that Power, has ſummoned his Adverſary before a ſecular Court; this Step is cried out againſt by the Clergy, as contrary to its Prerogative, and tending to Irreligion; threatening all Judges who ſhall countenance this prophane Palatine, with the moſt tremendous Fulminations. The Public is already deluged with Writings, ſerious and comical, from both Parties; and the Conflagration grows ſo violent, that it is thought it will coſt the Court a Journey into Poland to extinguiſh it.

Geneva, March 22. The late Earthquake, among other Places, was felt at Mount Lenis, where the Shock was ſo violent as to cauſe a Chaſm, out of which iſſued a vaſt Quantity of Water.

LONDON.

March 12. M. Hop Envoy Extraordinary from the States General, hath preſented a Memorial to the Duke of Newcaſtle, ſetting forth, "That three Dutch Ships, named the Groenlandia, and the Bruynvis, and the Vrouw Leonora, were ſent, the beginning of laſt Year, upon the Greenland Whale Fiſhery, where they were frozen up, on the 21ſt of Auguſt; that the Crews thereupon did return to Holland, after having ſecured the ſaid Ships, by their Anchors in the beſt Manner they could, in hopes of finding them again this Year; that three Ships are now ordered to be fitted out to ſail for Greenland, in Search of the ſaid Veſſels; but the Owners and Freighters being under ſome Apprehenſions, leſt the ſaid Ships ſhould be carried away by Perſons who have no Right to them, made Application to the States General, praying that all Perſons might be forbid to intermeddle with the ſaid Ships and their Cargoes, except thoſe authorized to go and look after them; and the States General having complied therewith, the aforementioned Envoy Extraordinary begged that the like Orders might be given with Regard to his Britannic Majeſty's Subjects." Upon which his Majeſty has been pleaſed, with the Advice of his Privy Council, to order, that none of his Subjects take away, or moleſt the aforementioned Dutch Ships, or their Cargoes, or otherwiſe to intermeddle therewith, without the Conſent of the Owners thereof, or ſuch as ſhall be authorized to take Care of the ſame.

March 17. Letters from Paris inform us, that Aſſurances have been given in the laſt Diſpatches ſent from Verſailles to Berlin, of a punctual Performance of all Treaties and Engagements relative to the Guaranty of Sileſia, in caſe the preſent Difference between the Britiſh and Pruſſian Courts ſhould be attended with any bad Conſequences.

March 24. Having mentioned in our Paper, the Trial and Conviction of the Captain and Lieutenant of a Spaniſh Schooner, called Le Cua da Yamma, for taking an Engliſh Veſſel on the High Seas, under Pretence of being a Spaniſh Guarda Coſta, it may be be neceſſary to relate an Affair of a ſimilar Kind which happened when the late Sir Chaloner Ogle was Commodore at Jamaica.——As ſoon as he arrived to take upon him the Command of the Squadron there, the Merchants repreſented to him the great Difficulties they laboured under in their Trade, in having their Ships at firſt plundered, under Pretence of having Pieces of Eight and Logwood on board, and afterwards condemned by the Spaniards as legal Prizes. That every Method had been tried with the Spaniſh Governor to get them reſtored, but all proved ineffectual; they pleading the King of Spain's Orders for ſuch Proceedings. Upon this, Sir Chaloner ordered a Frigate out to cruize for one of their Guarda Coſtas, in which they were ſo lucky as to ſucceed, and in a few Days returned to Jamaica with a ſmall one, with 37 Men on board. On their Arrival, Sir Chaloner demanded the Captain's Commiſſion, which was ſigned by one of the neighbouring Governors, and appeared to him ſo extraordinary, that he had great Reaſon to doubt the Goodneſs of it. He then ordered the Frigate to go with a Notary and proper Witneſſes to that Governor, to ſhew him the Commiſſion, and know whether that was his Firm. The Governor, knowing he had exceeded his Orders in granting it, denied his Writing; and the Perſons employed, return'd to Jamaica. Upon this a Court of Admiralty was call'd, and the Spaniſh Governor's denying of the Commiſſion being proved, the whole Ships Crew were condemn'd as Pyrates. Before Sentence, the Captain gave the following Account; That the Ship belonged to the Governor, who had half the Captures, as is cuſtomary in Privateers, that the Commiſſion was ſigned by him, and that if he had Time allowed him, he could prove it to the Satisfaction of the Commodore and the reſt of the Court.

This Account of the Captain's was taken into Conſideration, but as the Iſland of Jamaica had ſuffered ſo much by theſe Captures, which had been always ſuppoſed to be illegal, and now ſo plainly proved, it was thought the only Method of preventing the Continuance of them was by paſſing Sentence; and the Priſoners were executed accordingly. When this came to be known in the Spaniſh Settlements, no Perſon would accept a Commiſſion; ſo that during the Continuance of Sir Chaloner in the Weſt Indies, which was four Years, not one Ship was taken by the Spaniards. After he was recalled, they renewed their Depredations, which at laſt brought on the late War.

The following Extract of a Letter from Commodore Cotes, Commander of his Majeſty's Ships at Jamaica, to Mr. Cleveland, Secretary to the Lords of the Admiralty, dated the 15*th of* January, 1753, is publiſhed by Authority,

"I have had no Complaints from the Merchants of any Ships taken ſince my Arrival."

We hear, that the Bill for permitting Iriſh Wool and Woollen, or Bay Yarn, to be imported into any Port in Great Britain, has paſſed the Houſe of Commons.

They write from Dublin, that ſeveral Artificers in the different Branches of the Woollen Trade have lately diſappeared, with Intent (as is ſuſpected) of removing to Spain. This Suſpicion ſeems to be the better grounded, as it is well known that the Emiſſaries of that Nation have for ſome Time paſt been very active in procuring Hands; and that, in order to carry on their Deſign with the greater Security and Succeſs, they having appeared under various Diſguiſes; one, in particular, had ſo ſooner ſeduced a conſiderable Number on board, than he immediately threw off his aſſumed Dreſs of a Journeyman Weaver, and appeared in laced Clothes and the proper Habit of a Gentleman.

This Morning the moſt noble the Marquis of Carnarvon was married to Miſs Margaret Nicholl, Daughter of John Nicholl, Eſq; late of Scuthgate in Middleſex; a Lady of great Beauty, Merit, and a Fortune of 130,000l.

April 2. Some Letters from Paris intimate, that there is but very little Probability of their giving Ear to any Repreſentations about the Neutral Iſlands in America, 'til the Affair of the French Ships taken by the Engliſh during the Spaniſh War, without ſufficient Cauſes, be adjuſted, and full Satisfaction given to the Sufferers, ſome of whom claim ſeveral thouſand Pounds Sterling, for Coſts, Damages, and Intereſt, beſides Reſtitution of Ships and Cargoes: In the mean while the ſaid Iſlands may be kept as a Security for the Payment of ſuch Demands as they may be able to prove juſt and legal.

The following is a ſhort CHARACTER of the late PRINCE EUGENE; with a Genuine COPY of his DAILY PRAYER, which, for its ſingular Excellency, has been admir'd by all Nations, and ought to be preſerved with his immortal Glory to all ſucceeding Generations.

His CHARACTER.

Valiant without Pride, Victorious without Cruelty;
Indefatigable without Avarice, a Friend without Guile;
A Foe without Revenge, a Soldier without Vice,
And a Chriſtian without Bigotry;
Whoſe univerſal Fame will bury Churches,
Outlive Time, and ſtand up with ETERNITY.

His PRAYER.

O MY GOD, I believe in Thee, do Thou ſtrengthen me; I hope in Thee, do Thou confirm my Hope; I love Thee, vouchſafe to redouble my Love; I am ſorry for my Sins, do Thou increaſe my Repentance; I love Thee as my firſt Principal, I deſire Thee as my laſt End: I thank Thee as my perpetual Benefactor, and call upon Thee as my ſupreme Defender. My GOD, be pleaſed to guide me by Thy Wiſdom, rule me by Thy Juſtice, comfort me by Thy Mercies, and keep me by Thy Power. To Thee I dedicate all my Thoughts, my Words, my Actions, and Sufferings, that henceforth I may think of Thee, ſpeak of Thee, act according to Thy Will, and ſuffer for Thy Sake. LORD, my Will is ſubject to Thine, in whatſoever Thou will; therefore, I beſeech Thee to enlighten my Underſtanding, to give Bounds to my Will, to purify my Body, and ſanctify my Soul. Enable me, O my GOD, to overcome Pleaſures by Mortification, Covetouſneſs by Alms, Anger by Meekneſs, and Lukewarmneſs by Devotion. O my GOD, make me prudent in Undertaking, courageous in Danger, patient under Diſappointment, and humble in Succeſs. Let me never forget, O LORD, to be fervent in Prayer, temperate in Food, exact in my Employs, and conſtant in my Reſolution. Inſpire me, O LORD, with a Deſire always to have a quiet Conſcience, an outward Modeſty, and an edifying Converſation, and a regular Conduct. Let me always apply myſelf to reſiſt Nature, to aſſiſt Grace, to keep Thy Commandments, and deſerve to be ſaved.——O, my GOD, do Thou convince me of the Meanneſs of the Earth, the Greatneſs of Heaven; the Shortneſs of Time, and the Length of Eternity. Grant that I may be prepared for Death; that I may fear Thy Judgment; avoid Hell; obtain Paradiſe through our LORD and SAVIOUR JESUS CHRIST.

NEW-YORK.

May 21. Capt. White, of the Snow Unicorn, of this Port, who arrived here on Wednesday Night last, in 31 Days from the Bay of Honduras, informs us, That three Days before he failed from thence, 15 Craft, belonging to the Baymen, were taken by the Spaniards in the New River, and after they had ſtripped the Men, ſet them aſhore on a maroon Key.

On Friday Morning laſt was obſerved floating in the North River, and ſoon after brought aſhore at the Foot of Warren Street, the Corps of a Boy ſuppoſed to be about 12 Years old, and to have lain in the Water about 10 Days or a Fortnight, as it was much putrify'd: It is not as yet known whoſe Child it is, but appears to have been horribly mangled, having his Right Arm cut off a few Inches below the Shoulder, and the Left Hand a little above the Wriſt, with the Right Leg cut off a ſmall Diſtance below the Knee; had its Belly rip'd open from the Navel to it's private Parts, and afterwards ſewed up; with a large Gaſh cut upon the Left Thigh, which the Operators likewiſe ſewed up; had a large Hole at the back Part of its Head, and alſo had its Throat cut.

June 4. Capt. Lavarance, in three Weeks from Barbadoes, informs us, That his Excellency Governor GRENVILLE, was call'd Home, and was to depart the Iſland in a Merchantman, two Days after he ſail'd, having received the Addreſſes of the Legiſlature, and others from the Inhabitants of the Iſland, acknowleging, and returning him Thanks for his long and juſt Adminiſtration, wiſhing him a ſafe and proſperous Voyage home, and a happy Return to the Government of that Iſland, to which they ardently wiſh'd his Re-appointment.

Capt. Troy who arrived here on Tueſday laſt in 7 Weeks from Londonderry, informs us, that he was obliged to put into Loch Dale, in Scotland, at which Place he ſays there was a Report, that 25 000 Stand of Arms were actually landed in the North Highlands from France, and that eight Men of War, and three Regiments, were gone round from England in Purſuit of them. A Letter in Town from Loch Dale, alſo mentions it as a Report.

June 11. Thurſday laſt arrived here the Brig Katy, Capt. Bayne, in 22 Days from Jamaica. By him we learn, that his Excellency Admiral Knowles, Governor of that Place, ſince his having been in the Adminiſtration of Affairs there, has not ſuffered the Men of War to be idle in the Ports, but ordered ſuch out on a Cruize as chanc'd to be in them, there being now an Engliſh 20 Gun Ship a cruizing down on the Main: That ſeveral Turtlers, and other Veſſels, fitted out from the Iſland, had received Orders from his Excellency not to reſiſt, or endavour an Eſcape from, the Attacks of the Spaniſh Guarda Coſtas, or other Veſſels, that ſhould attempt to take them, each of the Commanders having Letters from his Excellency to deliver to the ſeveral Governors of the Ports into which the Captors ſhould carry them; the Contents of which were, that unleſs the Veſſels taken, with their Cargoes, or the Value of them, were immediately returned to their proper Owners, he (his Excellency) would as immediately order ſuch Reprizals to be made on their Subjects, as would ſufficiently reimburſe the ſame, together with the Damages that either of the Engliſh Veſſels ſhould ſuſtain during the Engagement, if any ſuch ſhould happen; and likewiſe, that the Crews of ſuch Spaniſh Veſſels of Force as ſhould be taken by any of his Britannic Majeſty's Subjects, and brought into that Iſland, he would look upon as Pyrates, and hang them accordingly: And, that his Excellency had acquainted the other Engliſh Governors in the Weſt Indies of the above Reſolution, and it was not doubted but that they would all reſolve to act agreeable to the Example he had ſet them.

Capt. Rolland, who arrived here the ſame Day from Leith in North Britain, in nine Weeks, informs us, That he read in the Edinburgh Courant juſt before he ſail'd, a Paragraph which contain'd, as a Report, the Subſtance of what is mentioned above, brought by Capt. Troy from Loch Dale.

ANNAPOLIS.
